The United States Probation Office in the Eastern District of New York has requested no action be taken at this time. They have issued the offender with a letter of reprimand and he has been advised his continued failure to make a payment will result in a violation of supervised release. The United States Probation Office in the District of New Jersey respectfully recommends the offender be given 60 days to come into compliance with his payment plan, including arrears, or else a violation of supervised release proceeding will be initiated.

Respectfully submitted,
